One other strategy is to check out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is exactly the similar on each web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This will tell you what your optimum value is.

Ultimately, for those who've written a guide that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your e-book will herald both site visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that promoting-handle sentence that sums up what downside your e-book solves and what the advantages of your 1691 guide will likely be to the purchasers who buy it. After which watch your market come to you!
