Do this by creating a sales web page for the new guide, but don't embody a value on that page. As an alternative, add a number of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out prices by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on every page. Make sure your sales copy is exactly the identical on each web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. It will inform you what your optimum price is.

Finally, should you've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your e-book will herald both traffic and profits.
