An effective approach for figuring out a worth is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already bought an book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price.

Do that by creating a sales page for the new e book, but do not embody a price on that page. As an alternative, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on every page. Be certain that your sales copy is strictly the same on each web page, and consists of your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum worth is.

Ultimately, for those who've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your e book will usher in each site visitors and profits. So make sure to write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what drawback your book solves and what the benefits of your e book will probably be to the customers who purchase it.
