An efficient method for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these clients have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do this by making a gross sales web page for the new guide, but don't embody a price on that page. Another strategy is to test out costs by creating a number of duplicate sales pages with different prices on each page. Be sure your gross sales copy is strictly the similar on each web page, and includes your promoting-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. It will let you know what your optimum price is.
